Copies of this Catalogue, giving prices realized, neatly executed in red ink, 50c. Cash with order. Acquaint yourself with the prevailing rates for coins, etc. Many collectors order them.

In the matter of Coin Collecting, there is no outlay of funds that brings equal satisfaction, to that expended for priced catalogues of current sales.

Coins and Medals are sold at so much per piece. Kindly make your bids accordingly. Do not bid by the lot. If a lot contains 10 pieces and you desire to offer $2.00 for it, make your bid 20c.

My terms for buying are 10 per cent.

Auction Sales are strictly for cash. Parties unknown to me must send a deposit covering at least 25 per cent. of their bids, otherwise they will not be accepted.

Collectors with experience have found that all catalogues are not alike.

My rating of the condition of Coins and Medals, and the statements made in my Catalogues as to their rarity, etc., are to be distinctly understood as based on my personal judgment, formed after an experience of more than twenty-five years as a dealer.

Visiting buyers and others will note that the sale is to be held at the PARK AVENUE HOTEL.

CATALOGUE.

Silver Dollars.

1 1794 Fine. Perfect specimens of this very rare dollar—the first of the series issued—are almost unknown. This example has escaped most of the common, objectionable features. The obverse is evenly impressed, excepting the second to fifth stars on l., from bottom of hair, which though weak, are well outlined—generally termed as flat.—LIBERTY. head and date are all strong, highest parts of hair but slightly worn. The reverse is also fine, but the usual presence of file marks—in flan, before striking—on l., render portions of "United States" indistinct. Edge, HUNDRED  CENTS  ONE  DOLLAR OR  UNIT  The choicest specimen offered in years.

2 1795 Head type. Good, though hair worn; profile and eye fine.

3 1795 Bust type. 7 berries in wreath. A strong impression, extremely fine, much original brilliancy.

4 1795 Another, from same dies as last. Very fine and nearly the equal of the preceding.
